BURNING THAT MIDNIGHT OIL . . .

Studying late into the night helped Shahram prepare for his calculus test, but despite his hard work and lack of sleep he still had more to complete the next day in school.

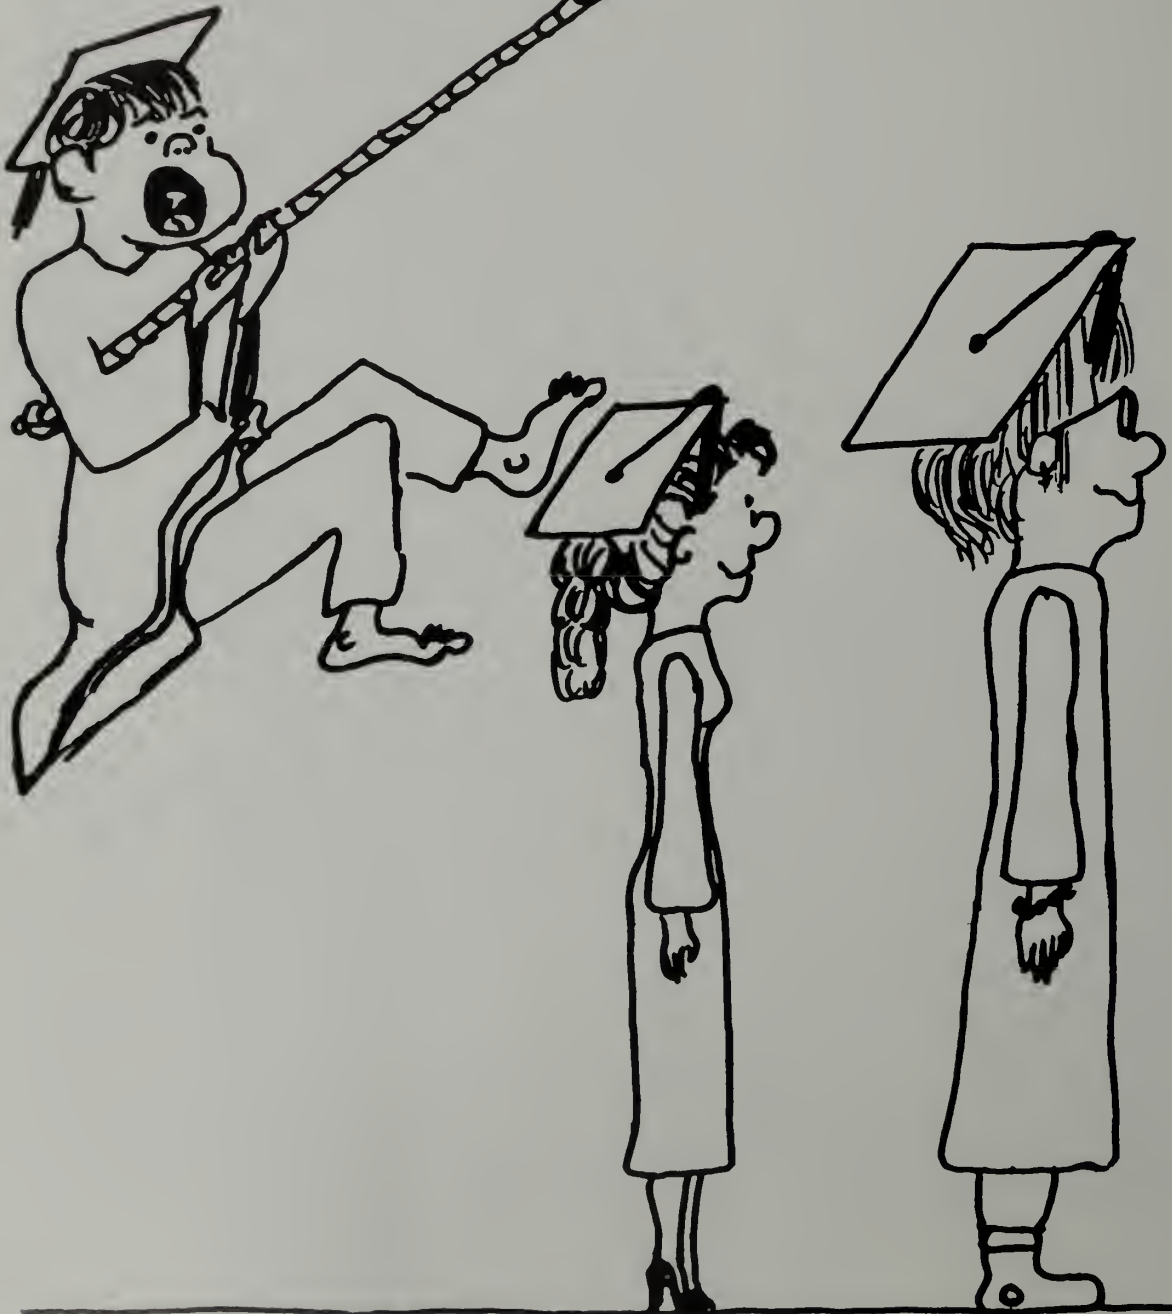

Blood shot eyes close as a teacher's voice drones on. A nodding head jerks awake just as much-needed slumber begins to take hold. It's a common sight to see students in a zombie-like state due to lack of sleep, especially on test days.

Students employ various methods of fighting drowsiness while studying. Some students crank the tunes; others drink anything with caffeine.

In many cases, the problem begins with extra-curricular activities. For people who have after-school jobs, homework has to wait. Mark Harrington admits, "When I get home from school, I like to watch Porky Pig. After a whole day in school, the last thing I feel like doing is working."

As long as students can find something to do besides homework, desk lamps will continue to glow long past midnight.

Go ahead, make my day

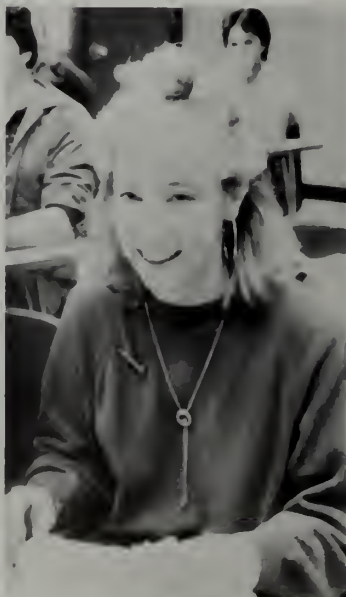

A blast from the past . . .

Throughout our years at Norwell, we have encountered all kinds of people. The people that will remain in our memories, however, are those friends we have made. When we look back in future years, the times, good and bad, will always remind us of our years at Norwell High.

Revenge is sweet.

The proud new mother overlooks her little girl

As our careers at Norwell High come to a close, we look back on the events of the year; dissection kept the Biology classes busy, while egg babies occupied the minds of psychology students. We look forward to a bright future, full of new horizons.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The 1986 Christmas Concert was a great success. The Jazz Band led off the concert with their rendition of "On Broadway", accompanied by Susan Tedeschi. The Chorus followed, singing selections from old to new. The last performance of the day was by the Concert Band, who filled the auditorium with the spirited sounds of the season. Once again, Mr. Anthony and Ms. Geeze provided everyone with a great show for the Christmas season.

SENIOR AUCTION

Once again, the Senior Auction was the highlight of the Christmas season. With items ranging from gift certificates to expensive restaurants to a ski trip with Brandon and Jim, everyone in the audience had a chance to bid on something that caught their eye. It was a day of high excitement, with a showdown for Mr. Swartz's dinner ending with a $430 bid! "Dinner with Esta" was another popular item, as were the traditional chocolate-chip cookies. All in all, it was a sensational day enjoyed by all.

Over there-a bid, a bid! (finally!)

What is that?!!

Just sign here on the dotted line . . .

In 1986 the N.H.S. Girls Track team continued their winning ways, compiling a record of 10-0 while extending their winning streak to 37 straight victories. Besides winning the South Shore League championship for the third straight year, the girls captured team titles at the South Shore Principals Meet, Falmouth Invitational Meet, Eastern Mass. Meet, and were runners-up at the All-State Meet. The Clippers were paced by All-American Pam Connell as well as Pam Newsome in the two mile, Beth Goldman in the javelin and division champion Toni Giacobbe in the discus. The mile relay team of Connell, Dawn Avery, Michelle Drysdale and Wendy Blake did what no team has ever done in Massachusetts—they won the state and New England titles for the fourth straight year.

BOYS' TENNIS

The boys' varsity tennis team had a historic season. They defeated Duxbury (twice) for the first time in over 15 years, and they were league champions. The road to the top included eight 3-2 victories over very tough opponents. First singles player Scott Ruddick, and the first doubles team of Paul Goughan and Scott Perry all were named to the All-Star team.

FOOTBALL

Under the leadership of seniors Matt Daly, Sean Faley, Mark Harrington, Scott Granai and Bruce Gemmill, the young 1986 Clippers plowed its way through a formidable schedule. Seniors Peter Norton (c), Jack Surhans (c), and Ed Connerty gave the team much of its impetus. The 1987 squad will look forward to the continued development of a very young team, including Paul Flaherty, Ned Flaherty, and goalie Mike Sweeney.

The 1986 Girls Cross Country team fielded their strongest team ever, compiling a record of 9-1, they placed second in the league to Duxbury. The 1986-87 boys' basketball team had a transition season under new coach Paul Wholey. Highlighted by a five game winning streak at mid-season, the Clipper's season saw high scoring junior Paul Flaherty make a name for himself while senior co-captains Matt Daly and Rob Flaherty made consistent contributions. With several strong juniors returning, next year's club should make a strong showing in the south shore league.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

As it upset several top-notch teams, the 1986-87 girls' basketball team left its mark on the south shore league. Along with Pam Mohan and Cheri Connolly, All-Star Adrienne Mitchell led the young Clipper team.

This year Adrienne Mitchell and Chris Allen are the 1986-87 Homecoming King and Queen.

Reagan, R. Freehill, K. McCoffrey, S. Edwards, K. McCaffrey, L. Murphy, M. Drysdale, M. Lordan.

The 1987 boys' winter track team enjoyed its finest season ever with a record of three wins and four losses and a 3-1 record in their conference. The highlight of the season was a close, heated contest with Scituate on the last night of the season, though the Clippers came up ten points short. Bright spots for Norwell were

#2 all-time miler Brian Spitz and middle-distance runner Matt Messinger. Once again, competing in the tough Tri-County league in the winter prepared the Norwell trackies to dominate the south shore league in the spring.

Go ahead . . . make my day.

Hey you guys!

The 1987 girls' winter track team had an outstanding season, compiling a 7-3 record in an independent schedule. Highlights were the two-mile relay team of Kristin McCaffrey, Pam Newsome, Cara Moretti, and Kirsten Kelly, hurdler Michelle Lordan and 600 runner Michelle Drysdale. After pounding the boards on the various tracks of Massachusetts, the Clippers were well prepared for their quest for glory in the spring.

The fall musical, Funky Winkerbean's Homecoming, was one of the finest productions Norwell High has ever seen. The audience went into hysterics over Brandon Sullivan's outstanding portrayal of Les Moore, the school nerd. The story begins with Westview High's preparations for the imminent Homecoming game. Holly Budd, played by Kim Nash, looks forward to the event, because she hopes to achieve her life-long ambition of becoming homecoming queen. Meanwhile, Les dreams of becoming popular and asking out Suzi Peterson (Nicole Tafraian). Due to a scheduling change, however, the homecoming is cancelled until Les comes to the rescue by breaking into the school's computer system and rescheduling the game.

Coach Ross' 1986-87 wrestling team continued its trend towards improvement as it bettered its record of a year ago. Seniors Kevin Carnes (9-2-1) and Thad Larmay (11-1) excelled as they captained a largely underclassman squad. Led by the returning Ron Depesa and Mike Forti, next year's team will look to continue building an ever strengthening team.

The 1987 gymnastics team had a great season as they beat Duxbury twice to secure a third place finish in the south shore league. Against Duxbury, Norwell broke its scoring record as it tallied 104.9 points.

LA BELLE FRANCE

On one of the most memorable trips in NHS history, Mr. Dargis' group jetted to France in '86 to meet up with excitement and good times. The frigid cold of the chateaux on the Loire Valley was hard to take, but Alain always had the bus warm and ready for us. Everyone loved La Tour Eiffel and Mont ST. Michel, but Napoleon was our favorite.

EGG BABIES

Each year, Mrs. Travis' psychology classes enjoy a week-long experiment in which the students care for an egg-baby. The students must keep the babies in their care at all times and they can leave them at a day-care center in the library if they need to. If a parent is caught leaving his baby in his locker, he must write a report on child-abuse; If a baby is kidnapped or accidentally killed, the student has the opportunity to adopt. Each night, the parent must fill out a "let's pretend" sheet, on which he describes his activities of the day.

WHAT'S NEW, NOW, AND NOWHERE IN FADS, FASHIONS AND BEYOND.

The Whopper really is better than the Big Mac according to N.H.S. seniors. In a poll, 70% of the seniors preferred BK while only 30% chose McD's. It must be those free refills at BK.

When asked what school food is the best, seniors replied with a variety of answers ranging from chicken nuggets to salad. However, the "rustler grinders with cheese sauce" and the "crispy slice of pizza" seem to be favorites. Too bad you have to wait so long to get them.

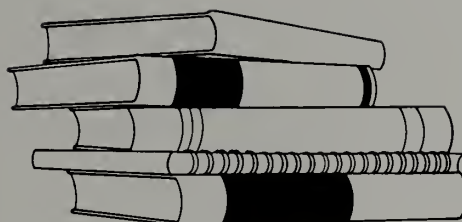

The arrival of the "Vita Pup" to N.H.S. has added a new dimension to the lunchroom scene. On any given day, one can witness seniors making frequent excursions to the lunch line on what are called slush runs. But what flavor "Vita Pup" is the best? 50% of the seniors polled prefer blue raspberry while about 35% choose cherry. Leapin' lemon-lime has some fans too, as close to 10% of the seniors prefer it to any other flavor.

Where do those well dressed seniors shop? Jordan Marsh at the Mall is the most popular place followed closely by the Limited and the Gap. Many students prefer traveling in town for their clothes to a variety of stores like Banana Republic and Bloomies. The more economic students enjoy bargain hunting at the Salvation Army where good buys can always be found.

As far as music is concerned, the seniors seem to be more into rock than anything else. Bob and Zip as well as the Big Mattress tied for first place with an overwhelming majority of votes. Classic hits, WZLX, and 94.1 WHJY took second place followed closely by Rock the Boat 101.7 for students preferring funky tunes.

Our class of '87 showed great diversity in our preference of bands, with Boston, Genesis and Bonjovi leading the pack. However, there were many others, such as Van Halen, Cinderella, Run-DMC and Kool and the Gang which were also high vote-getters. Led Zeppelin, the Eagles, and Grateful Dead round off the list, and prove that a frequent "blast from the past" catches us all.

As for singers, Phil Collins, Peter Gabriel and Whitney Houston topped the list. However, our diversity came through, and names such as Steve Winwood, Eddie Money, Bob Seiger, Janet Jackson, Pat Benatar, Madonna, and of course, the Boss appear near the top.

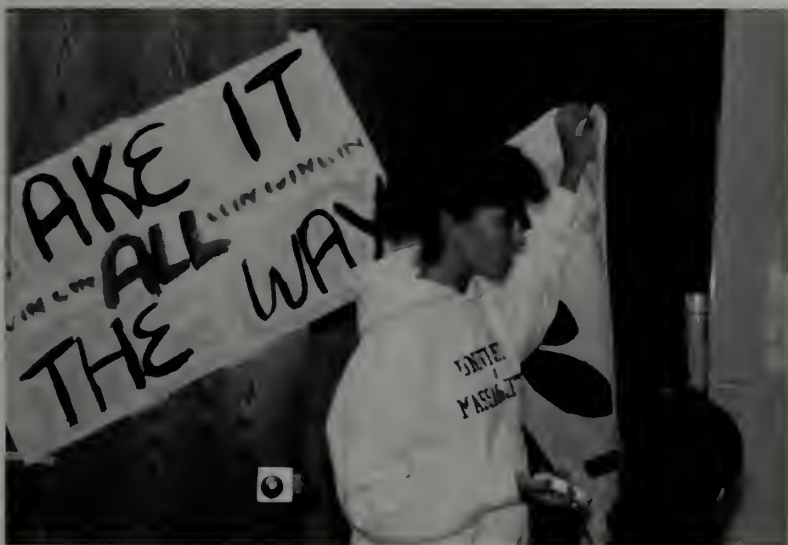

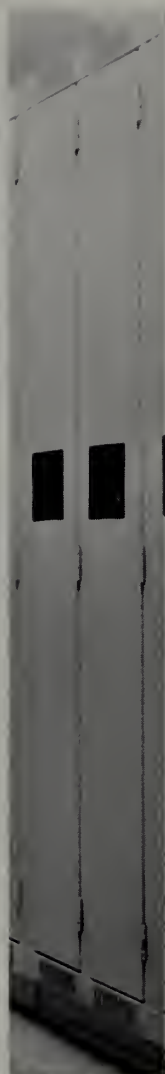

"To be or not to be; that is the question", Hamlet said, but for us there was no question. Hamlet and Macbeth were by far the most hated English reading assignments. John Steinbeck's Grapes of Wrath was a somewhat distant second, as seniors seemed to be more interested in something closer to home than the saga of the Joads. Sorry to Steinbeck and Shakespeare, but we would rather see the movie.

Although Moonlighting, Family Ties and Dynasty tried their best, no one could get the best of Bill Cosby and the Cosby show. 90% of all seniors voted Cosby their favorite. Maddie, Dave, the Keatons and Alexis will just have to get that fabulous Cosby wit.

In the booming metropolis of Norwell, a senior can always find a means of entertainment however scanty the choices may be. The favorite place to go on a weekend was Boston, where it is impossible to be bored. For others, Christy's was the place to be, but if all else failed, we could always crash at a friend's house and "do what we please".
